33	II.1	Supplemental	Harris County shall support legislation to provide flexibility to local governments in the collection of delinquent property taxes and to permit government attorneys to recover fees and costs in the same manner as third party law firms in the collection of delinquent taxes.  The Budget Management Office shall submit a report to Commissioners Court analyzing the efficiency of the process of the Harris County Toll Road Authority government attorney in house collection process and the savings to customers.  The Office of Intergovernmental and Global Affairs may use the Budget Management report as an analogy in writing the proposed legislation.  The proposed legislation shall be written and submitted by the Office of Intergovernmental and Global Affairs, with assistance from the County Attorney's Office, in a manner which avoids setting a floor on the amount of percentage of penalty government attorneys may recover in connection with collecting delinquent property taxes.
